SUPER TOTS 2009

FREE TO ENTER

The search is on for the area's cutest children. Every child who enters the competition has their photo printed in the Evening Telegraph's full colour supplement for readers to vote for their choice of Super Tots 2009. All 12 finalists will receive great prizes to include family holidays, portraits and toys. Open to children from newborn up to and including five years of age.

To enter simply:

1. Bring your child to any one of the following venues on the dates listed below to have their photograph taken by our experienced and professional photographers, BCR.
2. Remember to bring your completed entry form printed in your Evening Telegraph.
3. Return the following week to select the photograph you would like entered into the competition. Please note only those returning and selecting photographs will be entered. (Photographs are available to purchase on this day but you do not need to purchase photographs to enter the competition.)
4. Don't miss your Evening Telegraph featuring all of the children entered. See press for details. (You can reserve extra or advance copies by contacting us as below)
